

WHITECHAPEL WALK

Following our very successful Old Jewish Quarter walk last year, Stephen Burstin is offering us another fascinating walk in nearby Whitechapel.

DISCOVER

The tiny synagogue dwarfed on all sides by a mosque
The hospital going overboard catering for it's Jewish patients
The pub where the order of the day is Lager and Latke
The wine shop that smuggled kosher claret to the Mayor of New York during prohibition

LEARN ABOUT

The fatal battle between rival gangs known as the Kosher Nostra
The day the Jews and non Jews united to stop fascists marching through Jewish east end
How a Jewish immigrant was the only witness to a Jack the Ripper murder.
The fighting spirit of a host of Jewish trade unions and political organisations
There are fascinating sites to see, stories to hear and colourful characters to meet on this enthralling walking tour
